Ode to the Eagle
or Faith in America

Soar, Eagle, for you are the Strength
Of a Proud People.

You who traveled the open skies,
Over a massive continent
Of stalwart Indians,
You were their god.

Majestic Eagle with piercing eyes,
You saw the colonization of this land.
You who were yet to become
The Symbol of America.

Your Strength, Your Freedom,
Yes, that's what our Founding Fathers desired.
And you they revered,
The Symbol of America

Soar, Eagle, for you are the Strength
Of a Proud People.

You are the spirit in every American.
You are the fire in every Patriot.
You are our Hope,
You are our Destiny.

Soar, Eagle, for you are the Strength
Of a Proud People.

SENIOR BOARD

Row I: L. LoAlbo (Secretary), K. Meyers (Treasurer), S. Gross (Historian) Row II: Mr. Master, S. Dishart (President), K. Kozusko, (Vice-President), Mr. Usher

The Senior Board is an organized group of students, selected by each homeroom who guide the activities of the class. The officers this year were Steve Dishart, President; Kathy Kozusko, Vice-President; Limpia LoAlbo, Secretary; Karen Meyers, Treasurer; and Sherrie Gross, Historian. The phrase "Spirit of '76" took on a new meaning when our class went over our goal to sell a total of $56,000 in the magazine campaign! This same spirit was shown in the many achievements of our athletes and teams. Finally, the Board used its resources to turn the Senior Prom into the best reason for "holding on to yesterday."

FOOTBALL

Coach Urbanic and the Big Red Machine finished the 1975 season with an excellent eight win and one loss record. The Indians bowed only to Kiski Area, a loss which resulted in their being runnerup in the Foothills Conference. Big Red was a powerhouse full of talent: Geiselhart, Morelli, Gallo, Prokopik, Howard, the Villani brothers, Sanders, Christ, and Robinson to name only a few. The pride, the self-discipline, the spirit, and the desire to win are what make this team perform. All of these factors were visible in the 1975 Penn High Football Team. Congratulations Coach Urbanic, staff, and all those involved in making 1975 another successful year.

They were runner-up in Section IV of the WPIAL and finished third in the Foothills Conference Championship. Bob McCartney scored the most points in matches, but Lou Rosen had the best average. Ed Krancic tied for 20th in a field of 400 in the Individual Qualifier. Excellent performances were also reported by Dom Mastrogiacomo, Jim McGrath, and Joe Strauss.

Penn Hills is known for it's fine Basketball Teams, and this year, as in years before, Coach Misenhelter and his team posed a dominating threat in Section VII of the W.P.I.A.L. This year's success can be attributed to the fine ball handling, the dedication, and the teamwork which are essential for a successful team.

Invaluable performances were executed by Seniors Rick Genday, John Guadagnino, Keith Stitt, and Rod Tomlin. Juniors Ed Adams, Mike Christ, and Gary Schlegel also contributed greatly to the success of this season.

With a fine record of 12 wins and 2 losses, Coach Misenhelter can be extremely proud of his '75-'76 Basketball Squad.

Their spirit and enthusiasm played major roles in the success of their season. Coach Weisser has good reason to be proud of her girls.

The winner of this meet will vie for the State Title and then go to Washington D.C. to compete for the National Title. Hopefully this year, being Mr. Scott's first season, the team will beat their perennial rival Cranbury and go on to the National Title.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL

Coach Scott Klinger and the 1975 Boys Volleyball team have alot to be proud of. Again Coach Klinger's boys were WPIAL champions, and they placed fifth at the State Championship. The team placed third at the Union Tournament, second at both the Deer Lakes Tournament and the Elderton Tournament, and were first place winners at the Meadville Tournament.

With returning seniors Mike Gordon, Colin McKinney, Dave Brueck, Chuck Mastandrea, and Tim Gaul, and upcoming juniors Bob Donatelli and Randy Gaul, Coach Klinger can count on another victorious season.

BOYS TRACK

Under the direction of Coach Davis and his fine staff, the 1975 Boys Track Team exhibited endless energy and effort. They posted a 2 win and 1 loss record in their dual meet season. Performances by Carter, Vespa, and Sample, as well as those of the other team members, aided in this fine season. The team also did well in invitational and championship meets. The coming season will definitely be successful for Coach Davis and his team.

ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra which met 7th period each day, provided the members with an excellent background in music. Besides actual playing, much of the time was devoted to musical theory which led to a better understanding and and appreciation of music. Early in February the orchestra held many evening rehearsals in preparation for the 1976 musical entitled "Paint Your Wagon". Along with the musical, a few talented musicians participated in the annual PMEA District and Regional festivals. These festivals turned out to be very enjoyable experiences for those students involved. Thanks and best wishes are to be extended to Mr. Reichenfeld, the conductor, who retired after this school year.

BOYS OCTET

The Octet was an ensemble of eight boys who sang in Barbershop style and were selected and directed by Miss Svoboda. They sang a repertoire of specialty music and performed at three concerts as well as outside performances. The boys met after school, learned their music on their own private time and did not get scholastic credit for their work. They enjoyed themselves and completely entertained their audiences.

SELECT ENSEMBLE

The Select Ensemble, directed by Miss Svoboda, was a small group that wanted an opportunity to work on material that wasn't included in the repetoire of the other choirs. The students were selected through auditions. They rehearsed after school and received no credit other than the personal satisfaction of performance. Select Ensemble satisfied their audiences as well as themselves.

PUBLICATIONS

FREE SPIRIT

Free Spirit, under the supervision of Mrs. Schulman, was a creative magazine published twice yearly by the staff. They worked hard collecting, editing, and selecting the student writings and art work used in the magazine. Samples of poetry are included here.

Thoughts

Hold fast to life's treasures,
For we are all puffs of smoke,
Easily blown away.
Different only
In our thoughts.
Joan M. Maguire

Friendship

Friendship is a seed.
You water it, and it sprouts.
You feed it, and it buds.
With just a little love and care
It grows into a beautiful blossom.
You neglect it and it dies.
Shusole

People?

Go out on a stage,
The center of attention
Hear the applause, the laughter,
the tears.
Being able to be someone you're not.
This is to act.

Go out among people,
Command their attention,
And give of it too.
Laugh at their jokes
Cry at their problems,
Applaud their achievements.
Going out among people,
Being someone you're not.
This too, is to act.

Lynn Fero

Summer

Sun's reflection on crystal water,
Lazy days and restful nights;
Flowers rise and kiss the sun.
Mary Ann Steele

You

I like the way the moonbeams dance across the bed.
And the way you kiss the sleep away as I slowly raise my head.
We tiny mortals watch the stars drown away our senses.
And as we learn to love ourselves we let down all defenses.
While lying close your heartbeat pulses deeply into mine.
And as the sun peaks through the clouds it freezes us in time.
If I could have the things at will I'd always wanted to do,
You'd spend each day on earth with me, and I'd see the end with you.

Reflections

I cannot look
Straight into your eyes
For fear that you will see
How much I love you.
Linda Evans

Am I Me?

If the sky had but one star
How lonely it would be.
If a fire had but one flame
How cold it would be.
If a tree had but one branch
How could it shelter me?
If I am without love
Am I me?
Gigi Bodnar

Autumn

The park is empty
Tossed beer cans
Are my only companions.
They are rusted
Like me.

Walking past empty stores
I find myself
In an old Western
And everyone is dead.

The windows are soaped to hide
Naked mannequins.
A spider shell
Hangs dried from a web
The wind tears it slowly.
A leaf flutters by,
Brown and cracked.
It brushes my foot.

Lisa Humbertson

Infinite mountain tops
Misty with snow
Wild, naive,
Carved lovingly by the Wild wind's song.

PENN POINTS

A monthly school publication, published for and by the students of Penn Hills Senior High School, Penn Points has won many awards for excellence in the field of journalism. The 1975-76 school year marked its 40th year in existence. It has expanded from a mere four pages to eight pages including news of student activities, various special features, and a sports section. Editorials were also included for the benefit of students wishing to express their feelings on current issues. All editing, layouts and paste-up were done by editors under the guidance of Mr. Caugherty, journalism teacher. To gain practical experience in the techniques of newspaper printing, several juniors were chosen near the end of the year, to work with the senior editors. Advertising space has been made available and student sales cover the cost of printing expenses.

SENECA

Composing the Seneca staff were sixteen seniors chosen by Mr. Maute, their advisor. They worked throughout the summer and the school year scheduling and organizing the photographing of senior portraits, athletes, junior homerooms, faculty, candids, clubs, and special events. Also included in their job were writing articles, doing layouts of the pages, typing, and proofreading.

The trip to Gettysburg in October was the highlight of the year. They toured the publishing plant and saw the processes of printing and typing done by people and machines. Looking through yearbooks from other schools enabled them to compare and contrast ideas from these and their own thoughts. The staff learned the many aspects of publishing that go beyond the work they did. Compiling the yearbook took a lot of time and effort but it is especially rewarding to the staff to see it all put together.

SCHOLASTIC ACHIEVEMENT

SEMI-FINALISTS

M. Robinson, K. Biehl, D. Quigley, K. McGreevy

The National Merit Semi-Finalists and Commended Students were a select group of seniors who achieved the highest scores on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. The Semi-Finalists represented about ½ of 1% of the graduating seniors in the U.S. and the Commended Students were the top 2%. These students should be recognized for their outstanding academic performances.

COMMENDED NEGRO

M. West

This student was also selected for her performance on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. She was one of the top 4100 black students of over 50,000 who competed and was justly rewarded with this honor.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society under the supervision of Mrs. Marko, created enthusiasm for scholarship by rewarding students with high scholastic achievement and leadership abilities. Qualifications for membership were a 3.35 grade average and active participation in at least two clubs. The members developed character as they served the school by tutoring their classmates. The highlight of the year was the induction ceremony in December.

BOOSTER CLUB

The Booster Club, sponsored by Mr. Talliere, played a very important role in all the athletic endeavors of Penn Hills. Its main purpose was to initiate and activate school spirit. They also provided interested students with reserved seating at all athletic events away from Penn Hills. A car wash and many other recreational events were sponsored to fulfill the needs of the club.

School Spirit

Cheerleaders

Once again the cheerleaders have succeeded in influencing enthusiastic school spirit. These 12 girls not only cheered our team through stiff competition in football but also in basketball, gymnastics, and wrestling. The girls added an extra touch to their cheers this year with new diversities of mounts and pyramids. Fund raising activities held in both summer and winter included a candy sale and the first dance of the school year in September. The special feature of this dance was the presentation of Mr. and Miss Football, Lenny Gallo and Patty Buck.

They spent 10 hours a week practicing new and more complicated routines under the guidance of Mrs. Zaspel. They have performed at a basketball game and at various parades.

This year the girls raised money at several car washes to pay for new uniforms seen at this year's halftime shows. Candy sales and a spring dance also helped the Majorettes raise money for their banquet and the upcoming squad.

L. Restano (Secretary and Treasurer), K. Biehl (Captain), C. Shepherd (President), M. Natlis (Historian).

Rythmettes

The Rhythemettes, a group of 24 talented girls performed dance and precision drill routines under the supervision of Mrs. Patricca. They have captivated their audiences with fascinating performances in halftime shows, various parades, and a basketball game. Car washes, a candy sale, and a dance raised money for a scholarship presented to a Senior Rhythmette and they also helped defray the cost of props and uniforms.

Their dance entitled "Endless Summer" in the mode of the 1950's featured a jitterbug contest and the crowning of a King and a Queen of the Hop.

This club was almost completely independent of the school because they were responsible for their own welfare. Every two weeks the club planned a trip of five or more miles. To some members of the club these trips such as riding to Boyce Park or to the Monroeville Mall proved to be a challenge. The hopes of this club were to provide a great enough challenge for the more experienced riders and also fun for those less experienced bikers.

GIRLS LEADERS' CLUB

Under the direction of Mrs. Jack and Mrs. Furrie, GLC, the Girls Leaders' Club, provided intramural sports for interested girls who wished to partake in sports events outside of the Varsity Athletic Program. This club provided a place for all students to voice their opinions along with sponsoring many activites. They ran the refreshment stand during the football season and sponsored such movies as "American Graffitti", "The Sting", "Marx Brothers", and "Jesus Christ Superstar". At Christmas time the Council helped such charities as Penn Hills Service Association and Children's Hospital. For their final big project the Council held the Sweetheart Ball in March. PERMANENT STAGE CREW

The Permanent Stage Crew, under the direction of Mr. Caugherty, was one of the hardest working groups in the high school. Each of the six members worked for over 600 hours during the year. The six members, one of them being the first girl to be on the stage crew, were chosen by taking a written and practical test. They worked during and after school and on every Saturday between October and April. They were responsible for all performances on the stage. They built all the sets, including those for the musical. Sound, lighting, construction, painting, maintenance, and repair of the stage equipment were all part of the stage crew's job. They were at all rehearsals and performances. Without the work of these people, no performances would have been possible. Their work was appreciated by the performers and the audiences.

The musical deals with two love affairs. Nathan Detroit, a gambler, and Miss Adelaide, a nightclub singer and dancer. Having been engaged for fourteen years, Adelaide tries to get Nathan to set a wedding date. Because of his involvement in a series of floating crap games, Nathan keeps postponing it. The second love affair concerns Sky Masterson, a bigger gambler than Nathan, and Miss Sarah Brown, a worker at the "Save a Soul Mission."

Nathan, desperately needing $1000, maneuvers Sky into betting he can get a date with any girl Nathan selects. Nathan picks Sarah. Sky goes to the mission that is in danger of being closed. Realizing the odds are against him he offers to bring Sarah a flock of penitent sinners if she will go to dinner with him. She agrees, but can't quite understand why they should go to Havana for dinner. Drinking several drinks made with Bacardi, thinking it is a flavored milk drink, Sarah becomes drunk, belligerent, and is entangled in a brawl. By the time they return to New York they have fallen in love. Sarah discovers Nathan's crap game had been held at the mission while she was away, and Sky had only taken her to Havana to win a bet.

To keep his promise to Sarah, Sky arrives at a crap game, and induces every man present to make a fantastic bet. If Masterson loses he pays each man $1000, if he wins, every loser goes to the prayer meeting. Nathan being one of the losers, meets Adelaide along the way. She becomes infuriated, doubting that he is going to a prayer meeting. When the gamblers reveal their reasons for being there, Sarah rushes out to meet Sky, but meets Adelaide instead. She assures her that Nathan was in attendance. The girls both decide that now they must change their plans of attack. They would get Nathan and Sky to the altar and then start reforming them afterward. Both love stories come to a happy conclusion. Masterson not only marries Sarah but also joins the Mission Workers and Nathan and Adelaide are married at the Mission.

The mystery play involved Alexander Arlington, a writer of suspense novels, who was murdered and his attempt to discover his murderer. Arlington was sent to heaven where he managed to convince the angels to let him return to earth for one day to find his suspects and resolve his death. If he could figure out who the killer was he would remain alive but if he was unable to, he would return to heaven. He spent the day at his home questioning his maid, butler, secretary, nephew, fiancee, and several others to decide who had the strongest motive for killing him. Unable to determine a single suspect, Arlington locked everyone in his living room to wait till midnight when he was to be murdered. By altering the situation in this way he was convinced that he would discover his murderer. Nothing happened until Brewster, a friend of Arlington's fiancee, shut the lights off and the stabbing took place. Arlington returned to heaven and the angel helped him realize that Vivian, his fiancee and Brewster had worked together as a team to murder him, thus answering the question of "Who Dunit?"

The amusing comedy revolved around the love between Tony Kirby and Alice Sycamore and the extreme contrast in their families. Mr. Kirby was a wealthy company president which enabled them to lead a seemingly attractive but unhappy life. The Sycamores were warm people who were involved in unique activities which included the manufacturing of fireworks in the basement, running a printing press in the parlor, ballet lessons in the living room and other hobbies.

The differing backgrounds posed no real problem in Alice and Tony's relationship until Tony and his parents were invited to the Sycamores' home and they arrived on the wrong evening. After being embarrassed by the Kirbys' encounter of her family, Alice knew her marriage to Tony would not work. Through the Sycamores' cleverness and help from Tony, they converted Mr. Kirby to their happy madness. This convinced Alice that her family's strangeness was something she could be proud of for it made everyone involved in it truly happy.

The 1976 Senior Class assembled on October 3, 1975 with great determination. The purpose being the annual Magazine Kickoff Assembly. Students were entertained by fellow class mates representing each homeroom. Prizes were awarded to three homerooms with the most originality. TO THE CLASS OF 1976

The senior class of 1976 has the unique experience of being the class graduated during our National Bicentennial celebration. The class, however, is not unique from others in a sense that the post high school era still retains many social problems related to inflation, unemployment, environmental conditions and the energy shortage. In addition to domestic problems there are the explosive or near-explosive situations on the international scene.

As educated graduates, you are, I am sure, cognizant of the world situations, and should, at this point in your life, reflect on the two hundred years of our nation's existence and marvel at the men and women of history who established the greatest nation in the world.

Yes, it is quite appropriate during the Bicentennial year for you to express your appreciation for your heritage and dedicate yourself to being one of the famous citizens who surface to contribute positively to the next two hundred years of United States history.

The making of a yearbook is not an easy job. It's the product of more than 7 months hard work and the dedication of many people. We'd like to thank our advisor, Mr. Maule, for all his help and understanding, also our photographer, "Smilin' Ed", for his first-rate photos and colorful personality. Our special gratitude to "Huck" Finn for his invaluable advice and a very special thanks to the fine staff for all their time and effort. Moreover, we would like to thank the Class of '76, whose personality is our yearbook.
